REV. FISHER TO SPEAK AT COMING BANQUET

Rev. F. B. Fisher of New York, secretary of the Methodist branch, Laymen's missionary movement, will be one of the speakers at the interdenominational Young People's banquet to be held at the Stratfield, Monday evening, Feb. 7. Rev. Mr. Fisher was for several years pastor of the First Methodist church of Boston, and before that was for some years engaged in missionary work in India. He is an exceptionally brilliant speaker and the young people are exceedingly fortunate in securing him.

A meeting of the executive committee of the banquet will be held this evening at the Y. M. C. A. at which several matters of interest will be considered.

$150,000 CONTRACT FOR AUTOMATIC GUNS MAY COME HERE

Washington, Jan. 14.—The last item in the army appropriation bill, which has passed the House and is about to be the subject of hearings before the Senate committee, is of interest to Connecticut. It appropriates $150,000 for automatic guns, leaving it optional with the secretary of war to manufacture these in government arsenals if he chooses. The guns will undoubtedly be made at one of Connecticut's ordnance plants, however, as have the Maxim guns used in the past. The gun now in use is the Benet, a variation of the Hotchkiss, and the appropriation will purchase about twice as many of these guns as of those formerly used. The American & British Mfg. Co., of Bridgeport may be awarded the contract.

DUKE TO TRY FOR SOUTH POLE

Miss Elkins' Italian Sweetheart Preparing For Antarctic Dash.

(Special from United Press.) Paris, Jan. 14.—The Duke of the Abruzzi is preparing to go in search of the South Pole, following a different course than that taken by Lieut. Shackleton, the English explorer, who got within 111 miles of the pole. Years ago the Duke won honors in Arctic exploration and hopes to crown his adventure by being the first to reach the end of the Antarctic region.

TAFT TO STOP FUTURE DEALS IN FARM PRODUCTS

(Special from United Press.) Washington, Jan. 14.—As a result of a number of conferences at the White House recently, President Taft seriously contemplates sending a special message to Congress urging legislation that would curb the present system of "future" dealing in farm products. It is proposed to forbid inter-State telephone or telegraph lines to carry information whereon "future" deals can be made.

Attorney General Wickersham is preparing a bill along this line which will have the administration's support, whether the President sends in a special message on the subject or not.

FOUR TRAIN COACHES JUMP THE TRACK

(Special from United Press.) Effingham, Ill., Jan. 14.—While running at a terrific rate of speed early today four coaches attached to Train No. 14 on the Vandallia railroad jumped the track at a switch near Woodbury, Ill., and passengers received a severe jolting up, as the coaches ran over the ties. Despite reports that many had been killed and injured, later telephone reports from the scene of the accident say that none was seriously hurt.

When the train was wrecked, the engine was within 30 feet of a bridge which is 50 feet above the waters of Muddy Creek. Three coaches on the rear of the train and one coach in the middle left the track but none went into the ditch.

LEVY HELD FOR KILLING POLICEMAN

Boston, Jan. 14.—Positively identified by two young women as the man who, with a blow in the face, killed Policeman D. J. F. Donovan on a Chinatown street here yesterday, Henry J. Levy is today held by the police after his arrest within a few hours of the death of Donovan.

Levy, who is said to be unable to explain his whereabouts at the hour the blow was struck, was said by both May Colliack and Sadie Lewis to be the fellow who killed Donovan. They stood nearby when the policeman fell in the street and at once identified Levy when he was arrested.

In the first hunt for the slayer of Donovan, John Uonna was picked up. He had badly bruised knuckles and could not satisfactorily account for himself. He is still held and if not concerned in the Donovan killing, he is probably wanted for some other affair.

KELLY OUTCUES LANNON.

The second game in the pool tournament between the Raveloe and Lotus clubs, held last evening, resulted in another victory for the latter. John Kelly performed for the Raveloes, while Jack Lannon handled the cue for the Lotus club.

SUIT TO RECOVER DEATH BENEFITS.

Deputy Sheriff Peter Doolan has served papers on the Hungarian Sick Aid Society in a suit for $800 brought by Bessie Kuczo and her son, Andrew Kuczo, Jr., both of Stamford. In July, 1909, Andrew Kuczo, Sr., died, being a member in good standing, the plaintiffs allege, of the Sick Aid Society. As the wife, Bessie Kuczo, and her son should have received death benefits and funeral expenses of $700, no part of which has been paid by the society, they brought suit.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST COACHMAN FOR BRUTAL KILLING OF NURSE MAID

(Special from United Press.)

Millbrook, N. Y., Jan. 14.—Frank Schermerhorn, coachman for Barnes Compton, New York financier, who lives here, is being guarded by a policeman today in the Vassar Hospital. Physicians today declare Schermerhorn will recover, and as soon as possible a charge of murder will be formally placed against him and he will be forced to undergo trial for the brutal assassination of Miss Sarah O. Breymer, the pretty nurse in the Compton home.

Schermerhorn's attempted suicide last night, together with his note disclaiming responsibility for the murder, before he had even been suspected of the crime, together with other evidence that has been unearthed, has convinced the police that the coachman alone committed the murder.

vants, had searched the house after the murder and discovered the trussed up body of the nurse at the side of the sleeping Compton child.

McCabe went to Schermerhorn's cottage and found the coachman on the floor, his throat cut by a razor, he still clutched in his hand. On the table was a note to his wife. It read: "My dear wife: I am not guilty. I write this to say good-bye. Your loving husband, Frank."

"Not guilty? Who said you were?" McCabe shouted at the still conscious man. Schermerhorn would make no incriminating answers but begged to be allowed to die. Instead he was hurried to the hospital and a policeman set to guard him so that he might not make away with himself. It was there that he accused the Japanese butler of the crime.

Robbery was not the only motive for the murder, for the autopsy has proven that Miss Breymer was assaulted. There were black marks on her face and on the bed, and the police are inclined to believe the assailant blackened his face so that a negro would be suspected. They also say that when Schermerhorn was arrested there were still black marks on his face which he had not had time to remove. The police believe the assailant took the silverware to hide the real motive for the crime.

A revolver stolen from the house was found near Schermerhorn's cottage and a search is being carried on today for the valuable jewels and silver taken by the robber. It is believed the lot is hidden about the estate.

Chief McCabe, says he is confident he will secure a complete confession from Schermerhorn as soon as he is sufficiently recovered to talk intelligibly.

Meriden, Jan. 14.—Miss Sarah Breymer, the nurse who was murdered at Millbrook, N. Y., was a Meriden girl and a graduate of the City Hospital. She left here about a year ago to take a position at the Togus, Me. Soldiers Home and from there went to Millbrook. She was 27 years old and has a father and brother in South Africa. An aunt and two cousins live in this city. She was brave and faithful to her duties and her shocking death will bring to her relatives and friends a sense of great loss.

Relatives have gone to Millbrook for the body and will bring it here, arriving probably this evening. The funeral will be held here Sunday.

DETROIT IN GRIP OF BLIZZARD.

(Special from United Press.) Detroit, Mich., Jan. 14.—One man fatally injured when struck by a car, street car lines paralyzed, telegraph and telephone wires badly affected, and railroad traffic impeded by the heavy snow, are some results of the blizzard which is holding all Michigan in its icy grip today. It has snowed hard since Thursday, but last night witnessed the worst blizzard of the season.
